[By Universal Service.] LONDON, Oct. 16.—The text of the note of the supreme council inviting Germany to participate in the blockade of Russia as published by the Berlin Tageblatt and reprinted by the Daily Herald, shows that Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Holland, Finland, Spain, Switzerland, Mexico, Chile, Argentina, Colombia and Venezuela have been invited to initiate measures to prevent their nations from engaging in any trade whatsoever with Bolshevik Russia. The measures are thus enumerated:

Refusal of permission to sail to every ship bound for a Russian port.

Similar regulations to be adopted with regard to all goods destined for Russia by any other route.

Refuse All Passports.

Measures will be taken to hinder banks from granting credit to commercial undertakings in Bolshevik Russia.

Every government will refuse its nationals any facilities of intercourse with Bolshevik Russia, whether by post or wireless telegraphy.

Marshall Poch added the following instruction:

"Inform the German government that the British and French men-of-war in the Gulf of Finland will continue to blockade Bolshevik ports and detain from the moment they come in sight ships bound for Bolshevik ports."

The preamble to the note declares that the open enemy of the Bolsheviks is directed against all governments, and that programs of international evolution circulated by them constitute a grave danger to the national security of all the powers.

In the capacity of the Bolsheviks for resistance increases this danger, it is ## stated, and it would be desirable that all nations wishing peace and the re-establishment of social order should unite to resist the Bolshevik government.

For this reason, it is further declared, the allied and associated powers, after blocking the blockade of Germany, have refused permission to their subjects to resume commercial relations with Bolshevik Russia.
